1. Display all the distinct last names
2. Display full name, hire date, salary details of the employees who earn more than 50000
3. Display all device details whose purchase date is in between 2021-11-14 and 2022-08-04.
4. Display the first name and the bonus (bonus = salary * commission per.) of the employees where the salary is in the range of 40000 to 80000.
5. Display the details of the employees whose third letter in the first name is equal to 'a' and salary is greater than 80000.
6. Display the full name of the employees who doesn't have any manager and salary is lesser than 50000.
7. Display the details of the employees who are not from department 2 or 5.
8. Retrieve the names (FName and LName) of employees along with the department names (DName) they work in.
9. Display the device make and model alongside the employee's first name who owns the device. Include all devices, even if they're not assigned to an employee.
10. Display a list of department names alongside the full names and salaries of employees who work in those departments. Include only employees earning more than 45,000 and limit the results to departments whose names start with the letter 'M'.
11. Retrieve the full names (FName and LName) of employees who either have a device or earn a salary greater than 70,000, along with the device make (DeviceMake) and model (DeviceModel) if they have a device assigned.
12. List the department names (DName) and the count of employees (EmpID) in each department that has more than 2 employees and where at least one employee earns a salary above 60,000.